FORMER GRANVILLE MAN IS DROWNED RESCUING ANOTHER

Benjamin A. Jackson, aged 35, of Clintonville, near Columbus, was drowned in Lake Erie yesterday. He was a former resident of Granville, where his father conducted a grocery and the family left there about 10 years ago. He was bathing at the beach adjoining the home of his brother-in-law, W. R. Clymer, at Lakewood, near Cleveland. According to dispatches he was drowned in 5 feet of water. The lake was rough and threw him off his feet. He perished before relatives could reach him. One telegram received in Columbus said Mr. Jackson lost his life in an effort to save another. He was a traveling salesman for a Cleveland firm and also was interested in business in Columbus with his father, H. M. Jackson. He was a graduate of Ohio State University. His wife, two children and his parents survive.

English Strike Again In Ypres Sector But Results Not Reported

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Aug. 22.—Another of the rapid succession of blows which the British and French are striking at various points along the Franco-Belgian front fell this morning on the Germans in the region of Ypres where the British were held up last week in their drive in conjunction with the French forces to the north. At dawn the British advanced over the fiercely-contested field between Langemarck and Frezenberg. No details have been received thus far of the new battle, which is being fought over a section strongly organized by the Germans. The importance of these positions is shown by the desperate counter-attacks last week by the Germans.

Sharp fighting continues around the coal mining center of Lens, in the outskirts of which the British are making progress in spite of the determined resistance of the Germans. Counter-attacks during the night failed to shake the British from their new positions and further gains at some points are reported officially from London.

The Germans last night continued their efforts to recapture ground gained in the new French offensive on the Verdun front. Heavy counter-attacks were made on both sides of the Meuse. The number of prisoners taken by the French has reached 6116. Several strong attacks by the Germans on the Aisne front during the night were repulsed.

Vienna concedes that the Italians have forced back the Austrians at some points in the new battle of the Isonzo. The Austrian war office reports the loss of the village of Selo, off the Carso front, and of territory below Azzua, on the Isonzo, south of Trieste. It is said more than 5600 Italians have been captured.

The Germans have opened an offensive on the extreme northern end of the Russian front. They struck between the River Aa and the Turu marshes, a belt of lowlands between the Aa and the Dvina. Petrograd reports initial success for the Germans, who compelled the Russians to withdraw as much as two miles at some points.

If the fighting now under way develops into a sustained attack the first objective of the Germans undoubtedly will be the important Russian port of Riga. Possession of this city would be of immense advantage to the Germans in land or sea operations against the Russian northern flank and they have made determined attempts to obtain it. At the conclusion of the great Austro-German offensive in 1915 the Germans were held up on the Riga-Dvinsk line and since that time there has been little change in this sector.

PETROGRAD NEWS CAUSES CONCERN.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Aug. 22.—Official dispatches have been received from Russia within the last 24 hours, of such a character as to cause some concern over the situation there.

They will not be made public, much less be discussed at this time by American officials who regard them as indicating a condition with which the provisional government has to deal.

Suggestions that the dispatches deal with the possibility of the Socialist element gaining an upper hand and forcing some consideration of peace out of harmony with Russia's allies or some new undercurrent seeking to undermine Premier Kerensky, meet only the reply that the dispatches cannot be discussed or made public.

PRESIDENT FIXES $2.60 MAXIMUM OHIO COAL PRICE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Aug. 22.—President Wilson held another personal conference at the federal trade commission late today on plans for further fixing prices of coal from mine to consumer.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Aug. 22.—Having determined the prices to be charged for bituminous coal at the mines throughout the country, President Wilson today turned his attention again to the task of selecting a man to head the coal administration.

Rumors today named President Harry Garfield of Williams College, now head of the committee fixing prices on wheat as the likely appointee. The president also soon will fix the coal prices to be charged by middlemen and retailers.

The president is believed to have abandoned the federal trade commission proposal to commandeer the output of the mines and sell the product to the public.

Coal prices were fixed in conformity with the recommendations of the trade commission. The price named for run-of-mine coal in the large producing regions averaged slightly more than $2 a ton and range from 20 to 35 per cent under the maximum figure of $3 fixed by government officials and coal operators at a recent conference here.

Bituminous coal prices were fixed by the president last night for every mine in the United States. The next step in coal control, a White House announcement said, will be to fix the prices to be charged by middlemen and retailers.

Prices were set on cost of production estimates furnished by the federal trade commission, after months of exhaustive investigation. The country is divided into 29 districts and every producer in a district will market his output at the same price. The president named no agency to carry out the provisions of his order, but is expected to appoint soon a coal administrator, who will be given entire control of the coal industry.

The prices named for run-of-mine coal in the large producing districts averaged slightly more than $2 in a few districts they are below that figure and in the western territory they are higher. Washington state is highest, with $3.25.

The president's statement said: "The following scale of prices is prescribed for bituminous coal producing districts. It is provisional only. It is subject to reconsideration when the whole method of administering the fuel supplies of the country shall have been satisfactory organized and put into operation. Subsequent measures will have as their object a fair and equitable control of the distribution of the supply and of the prices, not only at the mines, but also in the hands of the middlemen and the retailers."

"The prices provisionally fixed here are fixed by me under the provisions of the recent act of congress regarding administering the food supply of the country. When also conferred upon the executive control of the fuel supply. They are based upon the actual cost of production and are deemed to be not only fair and just, but liberal as well under the circumstances."

Scale of Prices.	Run of Mine	Prepared or Packed	Slack
Pennsylvania	$2.00	$2.25	$1.75
West Virginia	2.00	2.25	1.75
West Virginia (New River)	2.15	2.40	1.90
Ohio (th'k vein)	2.00	2.25	1.75
Ohio (th'k vein)	2.35	2.60	2.10
Kentucky	1.95	2.20	1.70
Kentucky (Toll-co)	2.40	2.65	2.15
Indiana	1.95	2.20	1.90

The president's order apparently makes no provision for a pooling arrangement, which had been suggested under which mines would share in cost of production plus a percentage of profit. Under this plan all coal in a district would have been sold at the same rate, but the mines would have received compensation based solely on costs.

The plan adopted officials admitted, will work hardships on a great many of the smaller mines and may force some to close down. This, it is claimed, however, will not reduce the total coal output, as miners released from the small mines will go to the large ones, and more cars can be supplied to mines of large producing capacity.

LOCAL RETAIL PRICES ARE NOT YET REDUCED

The price of coal has not been affected in New York by the action of the president, but the decrease in prices will soon be enjoyed by the consumers.

The prevailing price among the local dealers is $2.50 a ton, but with the producers lowering their prices approximately a dollar on every ton the high cost of fuel will be accordingly decreased.

PRICE DROPS IN CHICAGO.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Chicago, Aug. 22.—The Consumers' union, Chicago, said to be one of the largest retail coal dealers in the west, today announced a slash of from $1 to $1.50 on soft coal, effective immediately. This is in line with the price fixed by President Wilson. Other dealers will make similar cuts at once, it was said. It was estimated the reductions will cut Chicago's coal bill by $20,000,000.

TAX LEVY FIXED AT 15 MILLS BY CO. BUDGET BOARD

The budget commission, whose members are County Auditor J. W. Hursey, Treasurer Will H. Miles and Prosecutor Charles L. Flory, with C. L. V. Holz as clerk, has agreed on the rates of taxation for this year, making it 15 mills, the same as last year.

A meeting of the commission was held in the probate court yesterday afternoon and representatives were present from the Chamber of Commerce, city council, board of education and the safety department of the city.

Complaints have been made by scores of citizens regarding the laxity in the police department and the manufacturers asked for more protection in their districts. Residents in every end of the city have been complaining of the fact that their several districts were not properly policed.

After Councilmen Frank Knauber and Harvey Alexander had been heard, Safety Director H. H. Scott addressed the commission and explained the department's desire to give better protection and said he would do so providing the commission granted an increase in the budget to the safety department.

The school board was represented by Clerk Ben Montgomery, the Chamber of Commerce by Messrs. W. H. Mazey, A. R. Lindorf, W. W. Gard and Manager G. H. Mosser. The latter committee had previously met with City Auditor A. Nelson Dodd, who explained all the details of the appropriation of the tax levy.

The tax levy of 15 mills represents one-half of the 1917 collection, which will be payable in December and become available in March. Previous to that however, the liquor tax will be collected and apportioned to the various funds, the city receiving as its share approximately $27,000.

The safety department was given a substantial increase and will have 1.67 mills, or $51,000.

Following is the apportionment among the different funds for New York city:
State	.45 mills
County	3.25 mills
City's share township	.13 mills
Memorial Hall	.06 mills
City Sinking Fund	2.30 mills
City General Fund	.13 mills
Health	.15 mills
Safety	1.53 mills
Service	1.64 mills
Laboratory	.08 mills
Hospital	.09 mills
School, sinking fund	1.35 mills
School, contingent	1.04 mills
School, tuition	2.35 mills
Total	15.00 mills

ANOTHER DRAFT NOT PROBABLE BEFORE SPRING

First Increment Will Fill
All Available Training Camps

MAY MAKE CHANGES IN DRAFT LAW THIS WINTER

Analysis of Detailed Report of Operation of Draft
Will Show Defects

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Aug. 22.—A full statistical report on the operations of the draft law will be prepared by the chief marshal general's office as soon as the mobilization of the first increment of 485,000 men of the national army has been completed some time early in October. Pending the preparation of the report and careful analysis of the conditions it discloses, no steps toward calling a second increment to the colors will be taken. General Crowder said today that the call for the second increment never had been considered at any conference at which he was present and that he had no indication that it had been taken up in any way by President Wilson or Secretary Baker.

The first increment will fill all the training areas—16 National Guard camps and 16 National Army cantonments—to capacity and there will be surplus of men besides those assigned to the regular army. The regulars are now 100,000 above full authorized war strength by voluntary enlistment and the National Guard is in a similar situation.

Training facilities already are taxed to make for the front men now available and it is regarded as very unlikely that organization of an additional 500,000 men of the National Army can begin until the early spring of 1918. Neither quarters nor personnel of the train force will be available before that time.

Inquiries of an unavoidable nature will be shown in the statistical report. There probably will be some amended regulations, based on actual experience, with the first increment, and some amendments in the law may be thought desirable by Congress.

It is possible that some provision will be made whereby all the sons of one family will not be taken. A new definition of the status of married men may be one of the things acted upon. President Wilson's recent letter to Senator Weeks is taken by many to indicate a feeling that a more liberal policy may be found desirable. At present, under regulations, a condition of actual dependency must be established to obtain exemption. The condition of marriage in itself, is not considered. Another matter to be worked out is the status of aliens.

Still another is the status of men who have passed beyond draft age since being drafted and that of those who have become of draft age in the meantime.

EXCURSION TRAIN WRECKED; ONE IS DEAD, MANY HURT

Toledo, O., Aug. 22.—The second section of a Columbus Retail Grocers' Association excursion train on the Toledo and Ohio Central Railroad was wrecked at 10 o'clock this morning at Lima City, ten miles south of Toledo.

One railroad man, James Morrison, is known to be dead, several passengers are dying in hospitals at Perryburg and Maumee and 20 to 30 more are injured more or less seriously. The first section of the train arrived here at 9:30 and its passengers boarded a steamer for Detroit.

A few minutes after the boat had pulled out, the delay of the second section was explained by a telephone message summoning doctors and all the ambulances in Toledo to Lima City.

Ten doctors were summoned also from Bowling Green.

The cause of the wreck is said to have been the sudden setting of the air brakes. The heavy locomotive toppled over and several coaches were crumpled in the wreck.

The T. and O. C. chief traveling engineer, riding on the locomotive is reported to have been crashed to death under it.

The train consisted of 14 coaches, four of which overturned. The dead: James Morrison, traveling fireman, Columbus.

The injured: Philip Kahler, Columbus, engineer.

Frank M. Karns, Columbus, fireman.

Mrs. Margaret Fisher, Columbus, head cut.

E. C. Mattoon, Columbus, bruised over body.

Dwight Kags, Columbus, back injured.

J. H. Bott, Columbus, neck sprained.

According to officials here the train was running 50 miles an hour when it left the rails. The cause has not been determined. Passengers uninjured were transferred to another train and proceeded on their trip.

GERMAN AIR MEN MAKE TWO RAIDS ON ENGLISH COAST

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, Aug. 22.—Then German airplanes approached the English coast on the county of Kent today, the British war office announces. Two of the raiding machines were brought down.

An air raid warning was issued in London this morning. About an hour later the announcement "All clear" was made, indicating that the raiders had been driven off.

Bombs were dropped at Dover, (an important naval base on the English Channel), and at Margate. Three persons were killed and two injured. The statement says the raiders were unable to penetrate far inland.

German airships made a raid off the Yorkshire coast last night, it is announced officially. So far as it has been ascertained the damage inflicted was small.

The communication issued by Lord French, commander in chief of the home forces, says:

Ten enemy airplanes approached the Kentish coast near Ramsgate about 10:15 p. m. Being met and heavily engaged by machines of the Royal Flying Corps and Royal Naval Air Service and also by gunfire from anti-aircraft guns, the raiders were unable to penetrate inland.

A small party travelled west to Margate but then turned homeward. The remainder skirted the coast to the south as far as Dover.

Bombs were dropped at Dover and at Margate. Casualties reported up to the present were three persons killed and two injured. The material damage was slight. Two machines were brought down by anti-aircraft gunfire and by our own airplanes.

How Government Will Control The Supply and Price of Wheat

Food Administration Explains the Difficulties That Have Arisen and Makes Known Its Plans to Overcome Them.

Food Control Bill Does Not Fix Minimum Price For 1917 Crop, and This Must Be Kept Within Reason, to Curb Speculators.

THE food administration has announced its plans as to the control of wheat, flour and bread. The disturbance to the world's commerce and short supplies has caused a greater disruption of the normal markets for wheat than any other cereal.

First.—As a result of the isolation of certain of the world's wheat producing countries by either belligerent lines or short shipping the normal determination of the price of wheat by the ebb and flow of commerce is totally destroyed.

Second.—In order to control speculation and to secure more equitable distribution of the available wheat and flour between the countries the allied governments have placed the whole purchase of their supplies in the hands of one buyer. Also the European neutrals are now buying their wheat through single government agents instead of in the normal course of commerce. Therefore the export price of wheat and flour—and this is the real price—if not controlled will be subject to almost a single will of the foreign purchaser.

Third.—In normal times American wheat moves largely to Europe in the fall months. This year the shortage of shipping necessitates its distribution over the entire year. Therefore there is danger of a glut in our warehouse system over a considerable period.

Fourth.—There are large stocks of wheat which cannot be drawn upon by the allies during the war, but in the event of peace or defeat of the submarines these would be available and might seriously demoralize the demand for American wheat.

Fifth.—It must be clearly understood that the guaranteed minimum price of $2 per bushel for wheat, set out in the food bill, does not apply to the 1917 harvest, but only to the 1918 harvest, and then under conditions which must be elaborated. There is therefore no determined price for the 1917 harvest.

Must Regulate the Price.

The result of this situation is that the normal price making machinery is entirely broken down unless some efficient government action is brought into play. Either (a) the American producer may face a slump in wheat, possibly below his production cost, and (b) the export price of wheat, which ultimately determines the real price, is at the will of a single agency. (c) Some one must buy the surplus wheat at any given moment, and if the surplus passes into speculative hands it will be held for higher prices later in the year. (d) With stabilized prices, extra hazards are introduced into all distribution links, which must be paid for by the consumer. It must be evident that the United States government can more justly deal with the situation than any of the agencies mentioned.

Therefore the food administration has determined to take the following course:

First, in order to eliminate speculation in wheat and flour, all elevators and mills of over 100 barrels daily capacity will be required to take out a government license, the conditions of this license to be that only reasonable and customary charges shall be made for warehouse service, that no wheat shall be stored for more than thirty days without the approval of the food administration and that certain information as to receipts and shipments shall be supplied regularly. The grain exchanges are being asked to suspend all dealings and quotations in future wheat. These regulations will come into force Sept. 1.

While farmers' co-operative elevators are excepted by the food bill, this, however, applies only to mutual concerns and not to stock companies, and, in any event, under the advantages of joining the plan none are likely to stand out.

To Open Agencies at Terminals.

In substitution of the broken down marketing machinery the food administration proposes to open agencies for the purchase of all wheat at the principal terminals, carrying on its transactions with the usual dealers, and it is prepared to take the whole harvest if necessary in order to maintain a fair price and will resell wheat for export in such quantities as we can afford to part with in protection of our own people, on one hand, and to sell, on the other, to the millers for domestic consumption. The administration will make no charge except a nominal percentage to cover costs of the operation, and arrangements will be made which will assure the government against loss.

In order that nothing shall be left to mischance we are setting up a properly constituted and independent auditing committee, which will check all transactions at every point.

The food administration, under these arrangements, would have a large influence in fixing the price of wheat. With a view to determining a fair price, the president has approved the appointment of a committee to be selected from representatives of the producing sections and consuming elements of the nation. This committee will be assembled under the chairmanship of President Garfield of Williams college, and it will be the duty of this committee to determine a fair price for the 1917 harvest. Upon the determination of this fair basis it is the intention of the food administration to use every authority given it under the bill and the control of exports to effect the universality of this fair basis throughout the whole of the 1917 harvest year without change or fluctuation. It should thus be clear that it will not be to the advantage of any producer to hold back his grain in anticipation of further advance, for he will do so only at his own cost of storage and interest, and if it is necessary for the government to buy the entire wheat harvest, in order to maintain this fair price in protection of the producer, the food administrators intend to do so.

A Blow at Speculators.

Furthermore, the holding of wheat or flour contracts by persons not engaged in the trade, and even when in trade, in larger quantities than are necessary for the ordinary course of their business is unlawful under the act, and such cases will be prosecuted with rigor. And such holders would be advised to liquidate their contracts at once.

"By the above arrangement we believe that we shall stabilize the price of wheat throughout the year, that the hazards of operation due to fluctuating prices which are imposed upon our milling and distributing community will be eliminated, and therefore their business can return to the normal lines and the normal margins of profit, and that we shall not only have stabilized the price of wheat, but stabilized the price of flour, and that it should enable us to arrive at a stabilized price of bread," says the board.

The food administration has had the patriotic co-operation of the leading millers of the country, and these millers have organized at the request of the food administration a committee to represent the entire trade. Detailed proposals for an agreed differential of profit and expenses per barrel of flour and per ton of feed are under discussion. Under this arrangement the public will be assured an equitable and stabilized price of flour based upon the cost of raw material, and we confidently expect the volunteer arrangement with the mills which will give satisfaction to the public.

The universal endeavor over the country to reduce consumption of wheat breadstuffs, in order that we may have the requisite exports with which to carry the allies over the forthcoming winter, will result in a largely increased amount of wheat available for export. If it were exported as wheat it would result in diminution of employment in our mills and, of equal importance, curtailment of supply of mill feed for our dairy cattle. Therefore the food administration will stipulate for a large proportion of export of flour instead of wheat, and as the export orders for flour will be given subject to the approval of the food administration those which co-operate with the food administration will be given the benefit of the exports employment. By thus encouraging the home production of flour the manufacturing cost will be reduced, and therefore the American public will receive indirect benefit in lowered margins of cost in distribution.

In accordance with the policy of the administration to co-operate with all trades, it is also discussing details of voluntary arrangements with the flour distributors by which agreed differentials may be effected in the wholesale trade.

Investigate Cost of Baking.

An exhaustive investigation is being made into the cost of baking and bread distribution, and active discussions are being carried on with the bakers' war emergency committee as to plans for the elimination of waste in the industry and the production of a standard loaf.

It is impossible to anticipate the price to be enunciated by the "fair price committee," under Dr. Garfield, and it will probably require two or three weeks in its determination.

The basis of determination will be to arrive at a price which represents a fair return to the producer for his patriotic endeavor to increase the supply and a proper reduction of the cost of flour to the consumer.

It must be evident to all thinking persons that unless the price of wheat, flour and bread can be materially reduced we cannot expect to maintain the present wage scale of the country and that we must in this social readjustment lose efficiency at a time when we can afford no such sacrifice.

POTATOES $1.10 BUSHEL, PORK PRICES SOARING

Potatoes are bringing $1.10 per bushel on the local market but the recent rain may force the price down as there will now be an abundance of the tubers. Lard is bringing 30 cents a pound and if the price of hogs continue to advance will be worth 50 cents before next year. Hogs were quoted at $19.50 and $20 yesterday and local dealers were asking 40 cents for pork chops. If meat prices continue to advance only the wealthy will enjoy meat while the poorer class will have to depend on a substitute.

SOLDIERS' MEDALS

Editor of the Advocate.—The Advocate soldiers medal was received Saturday noon. I want to thank you—also the people of Newark and old Licking county. It surely is a token of friendship—and friendship is what counts when men are on an errand such as we are preparing for, for the protection of our country and our loved ones at home.

Yours truly,
Jessie F. Bonham,
Co. B. Fourth O. L. Camp Perry.

Plenty of Work.
Editor of the Advocate.—I received your medal this noon and was very glad to get it. I don't think I will get back there until the war is over, so please thank the people of Licking county for the medal that they sent me.

Well, there is nothing to write about, only a lot of work.

Yours truly,
Guy Queen,
Co. B. Fourth Inf., Camp Perry, O.

Editor of The Advocate: I wish to extend to you my sincere and hearty thanks for this beautiful medal which I received from you on the seventeenth day of August and I can proudly say that I will strive to the utmost to honor the county which so highly honored me, by sending this token of appreciation. I remain, Wm. F. Johns, U. S. Marine Corps, 44th Co., Paris Isle, S. C.

Editor of The Advocate: Your kind letter of recent date and medal enclosed received and I am taking this opportunity to thank you, and the people of Newark, Ohio. I am indeed, very grateful. It is the little things that people do for you, that one appreciates the fact that what ever little one can do for those left behind, is appreciated and I cannot express my gratefulness. Very sincerely, Harry P. Johns, 4th Co., Paris Island, S. C.

Editor of The Advocate.—I received my medal today, and am very proud of same. I wish to thank you and the people that helped raise the money for them.

We are having a good time here swimming in the lake at evening, drilling in the hot sun all day. The grub is good, but not very plentiful. Would like to see Newark once more, but there is not much chance now until the war is over.

Yours truly,
W. R. Mathews,
Co. B. Fourth Infantry, Ohio National Guard, Camp Perry, O.

Editor of The Advocate.—Your letter, names of subscribers to the medal fund, and medal, which I prize more than pencil and paper, or tongue, can tell. All the boys of Licking who have enlisted in R. Co., Fourth Infantry, are certainly pleased with their gift from Licking county friends. I also want to thank you, one and all, for the interest you have shown in your home-town boys, and for the most precious gift to me that I have ever received from any dear class of people. I am getting along as usual, and never felt better in my life, as do the other boys, and remain as ever, a soldier boy from Licking county and Newark.

Jas. E. Schwach,
Co. B. Fourth Infantry, Camp Perry, O.

K. F. S.—Don't forget the boys from Licking county as they always think of you.

GERMAN SOCIALISTS WELCOME EFFORTS OF POPE FOR PEACE

Copenhagen, Aug. 22.—After Chancellor Michaelis had informed the main committee of the reichstag, Tuesday, that Germany would not reply to the papal peace note until she had consulted her allies Socialists, speakers who followed him said they welcomed the pope's action as they would welcome any step capable of bringing peace and all the more because it was expected to bear results. The Liberals declared themselves in agreement with the chancellor's sympathetic interpretation of the pope's action. The centrists associated themselves with the chancellor's remarks and said the pope's proposal marked extraordinary valuable progress toward peace which was so ardently desired by all nations. They hoped the act of his holiness would meet with full success.

The National Liberal speakers said they were unable as yet to examine closely the contents of the papal note, but endorsed the chancellor's statement. The Conservatives also associated themselves with Dr. Michaelis' remarks, but reserved their attitude with regard to the details. The German group especially welcomed the chancellor's firm declaration that the note emanated spontaneously from the pope. They regarded the pope's action as more sympathetic than President Wilson's previous attempt at mediation.

The independent Socialists regretted that the speakers expressed only general sympathy with the note without discussing it. The reichstag must exert its influence in drafting the reply.

One Socialist said there was no question of the reichstag renouncing such influence, but some days must be allowed to enable the government to confer with the allies. Moreover, the government promises not to reply without taking the reichstag into its confidence. The main committee then adjourned.

Two Little Imps

The Auditorium brings back for one day (Friday) those two clever little boys, "Two Little Imps," who are to be seen in their first starring feature, "The Two Little Imps." Instantly you smile on hearing these magic names of the Fox Baby Grand. You will immediately see the uproarious humor of the Irish janes, the solemn humor of the more sedate Katherine. They make a great pair and to the thousands who have seen and loved them, they are to be welcomed back to learn that they are the brought back for the day, "Two Little Imps," was directed by Kenan Buel, producer of many Fox features.

Notes

Seats for "Peck's Bad Boy" go on sale Thursday. The popular price plan will be in force, with seats ranging from 10 and 20 cents, with no seats reserved. First come, first served. The evening prices run for 10 cents to 50c. In the cast supporting Fannie Suratt in "The Two Little Imps," is seen the star, Katherine. Other players include Brundage, John Goldworthy, Martin J. Faust, Peter Lang, Dan Mason, William Burton, Dan Sullivan, F. Kennedy. The production was adapted and staged by that well known actor William Nigh, who is remembered for "The Blue Streak" and other noted photoplays. "A Kiss for Susan" with Fannie Ward, is to be seen at the Auditorium next week.

Can you imagine Marguerite Clark doing a giant swing on a trapeze? Can you picture her jumping from a second story window and landing on the limb of a tree to the ground below. Can you picture this star galloping madly along the highway in a prize fight ring, riding a horse, only to be snatched to safety by an English army officer who follows her on a runaway horse. Picture her as a pugilist in a prize fight ring. Imagine her knock out a huge, muscular wall. Well, they're all there, and more, too. Thrills, heart interest, laughs, action, and that wonderful originality and novelty always found in a famous Players production, "The Amazons." The picture Miss Clark will be seen in at the Auditorium, is a new one.

Annette Kellerman, noted diving queen, is at Bar Harbor screening another feature for the William Fox Co. Movies will be one of the highlights at our entertainments, that soon are to be filled with our young men, who are to train for military duty. "Eva Tanguay," the exciting comedienne, is in picture and will soon be seen at the Auditorium in "The Wild Girl." The "Home Sweet Home" and "The Beantalk" are two Fox pictures that Newark picture fans will soon have a chance of seeing.

The Paramount Picture Corp. is to offer seven big features for the month of September. Featuring Marguerite Clark, Pauline Frederick, Fannie Ward, Julian Eltinge, Mlle. Petrova, Wallace Reid, and George Belan.

Also Mary Pickford in "The "Little American" are early pictures for the Auditorium theater. Wallace Reid, who was supposed to have been drafted, has been exempted until the second call. His first exemption request was not allowed, but a compromise was agreed upon and he is temporarily exempted. Phedra Bana is on the Pacific coast making Russian pictures with the Russian Revolution as a background. Mlle. Petrova has made only three pictures for the Paramount Co., and has left that organization to form her own company. The company will be known as the Petrova Picture Co., and the first picture of her first picture will soon be announced.

Patty Arbuckle will soon be at the Auditorium in his third comedy under the Paramount banner. It is called "The Wedding Night." The king of "mirth-makers" will make those who see him shake their sides and bring joy to all. It is said that "His Wedding Night" is a riot of gladness and that it makes the "battle of Verdun" look like a Sunday school picnic.

"Peck's Bad Boy" is a dull, minute or dreary moment fully explains the new "Peck's Bad Boy" for the reason that when you are not laughing at good fun, you are listening to good music of the breezy kind that never fails to keep an audience in good humor. Irving Berlin has reconstructed "Peck's Bad Boy," making it up to date music for the day theater-goer wants as they go to the theater and forget the dull cares. The company has been carefully selected for their respective parts. Each person in the cast is absolutely necessary to the working out of the general story line of the picture, and, in addition, each member of the cast is called upon to contribute some kind of an interpolated specialty. These performers are, for the most part, recruits from the vaudeville ranks, where many of them have been prominent for years. "Peck's Bad Boy" will appear at the Auditorium Saturday afternoon and evening. Popular prices are to prevail. Seats ready Thursday.

GRAND MOLLIE KING. One of the most interesting features of "The On-The-Square Girl" is the beautiful Mollie King. It is to be starred at the Grand on Thursday and Friday. In the gown display which shows some of the most beautiful gowns ever seen in a motion picture. The scene represents one of New York's most fashionable modiste shops and the recreation given by the proprietor to introduce the latest models. The clothes worn in the scene are by the most famous and beautiful models in New York were furnished by Gidding's, the famous "Belmonte" house, and the display in itself is well worth the price of admission to any woman.

ALHAMBRA. Tonight and Tomorrow. Kitty Gordon, the incomparably beautiful is the star of the latest World-Picture. Brandy and Blue bears the fascinating title of "The Beloved Adventuress." Miss Gordon's beauty is enhanced by the brilliant gowns she wears in this production. She changes gowns for nearly every scene. Every woman in the city will want to see this picture for no other reason than to see this remarkable display of fashion's latest creations. "The Beloved Adventuress" will be the big attraction at the Alhambra theater on tonight and tomorrow.

IRISH BATTALIONS FIGHT BITTERLY ON THE BELGIAN FRONT

British Front in France and Belgium, Aug. 22.—(By the Associated Press)—The story of the valiant fighting waged by the Irish battalions, both Ulster men and south of Ireland men, in the latest British offensive northeast of Ypres forms one of the most remarkable pages in the history of this sanguinary battle. As was the case with the intrepid Londoners in Polygon Wood to the south, they did not achieve the success which they sought, but the struggle they made against overwhelming odds will make their names immortal in Irish annals. The ground over which the Irish troops fought Thursday may roughly be placed as lying between Fortuin on the north and Frezenberg on the south. Before them lay strong Bavarian positions scattered over a terrain which at first blush made an advance seem impossible. Stretching out from the Zonnebeke-Langemark road across the center of the battlefield was a ridge which dominated all surrounding ground and from a myriad of machine guns on the crest could be poured a deluge of bullets into the advancing ranks. Through the swollen Zonnebeke river, bordered by muddy water and scattered along both banks of the stream were many steel and concrete redoubts holding from 20 to 100 Germans each, well armed. Immediately in front of the Irish was an undulating ground. Every knoll was a strong Bavarian position and the whole section was filled with concrete redoubts and shellhole nests lined with machine guns. Depressions in the ground were a mass of knee-deep mud caused by recent rains and the flood of the river.

The Irish battalions were muddy and wet when they began the attack. The Ulster men were on the left and the south of Ireland men on the right. Shoulder-to-shoulder they moved out among the heart-breaking obstacles at the break of day. As they advanced they first encountered the customary thin line of German outposts among the shell-craters. These Bavarians fell back and almost immediately the Irishmen found themselves facing fire from every machine gun before them, vicious rapid-fire, whipping out a steady stream of lead breath-high across the whole battlefield.

Amidst this hail of bullets and crashing shells the Irishmen pushed doggedly forward. The Ulster men first struck a position called Pond Farm, below Fortuin. Here were many machine guns placed in concrete pits behind which towered strong redoubts and deep dugouts. The Ulster men plunged into the gun-pits and a fierce struggle followed. The Bavarians would not surrender and they fought until the last German lay crumpled beside his gun. A small garrison was left to hold this place and the Irishmen pushed on. There was constant and bitter fighting at every step. Numerous redoubts were encountered beyond and in most cases it was hand-to-hand fighting to a finish with a stubborn enemy. The southern Irishmen at a given hour went forward with all the coolness which made them famous at Ghinchy and other places.

North of Frezenberg was a redoubt called Borre Farm, holding 60 Bavarians with machine guns. The position was too strong for the infantry to take but the Irishmen battled on until those troops which had essayed an attack on the fortification lay dead or wounded before it. But others pushed forward to Hill 35 as the ridge which dominated the surrounding ground was known, and for a time that eminence was actually in British hands. But it was too important a position for the Germans to relinquish. They massed great numbers of men behind it and hurled them against the Irish. The latter met the onslaught with bayonets and machine rifles and fought as their forefathers fought, fiercely and determinedly.

But they were greatly outnumbered and gradually they were forced to fall back until the Germans had regained their hold on the hill. The Bavarians then began a series of heavy counter-attacks and the Irish, many of them wounded and all exhausted, retreated slowly, fighting every inch of the way, until they reached the trenches which they left at dawn and which they held. No more heroic effort has been made since.

There had been many instances of individual heroism during the case being that of the chaplain who gave his life while working among the men he loved. It was while he was kneeling to give absolution to some badly-wounded man that a German shell broke near him and he was killed. It was a great loss to the Irish troops and his name was spoken with tears by those left behind. Another who will not be forgotten is the doctor who for five days and nights continued his work of rescuing wounded under heavy fire.

THE FIRST LINE OF DEFENSE

Pure blood is the body's first line of defense against disease.

Healthy blood contains small amounts of antitoxins that neutralize the poisons of invading germs or destroy the germs themselves. That is why so many people exposed to disease do not contract it. Those whose blood is weak and therefore lacking in defensive power are most liable to infection. Everybody may observe that healthy, red-blooded people are less liable to attacks of cold and the grip than are pale, bloodless people.

To build up the blood there is one remedy that has been a household word for a generation, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. They tone up the entire system, put color in the cheeks and lips and drive away that unnatural tired feeling. Plenty of sunlight, good wholesome food and fresh air will do the rest.

Two books, "Building Up the Blood" and "What to Eat and How to Eat" give just the information that every mother of a growing girl needs. They are free. Write for them today to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Simple lines combined with fine tailoring will be the dominant note for the fall styles, whether one chooses the more severe cut, tailored garment or the dressier variety. Says Angelica Schuyler in The Mother's Magazine for October. Simplicity, correctness of line and serviceability will be the most sought features. Individuality will be the chief characteristic of the styles.

From all indications to be gathered from the great French designers so early in the season, the tailored suit will be the mode for fall. As a rule the lines will be more straight, tailored than has been the case for a long time. The early fall suits will be without fur, but may have touches of heavy embroidery. Many novelties are promised and women's garments will undoubtedly be more interesting than they have been. Suit coats are to be quite long, generally about 35 inches, even a trifle longer for the more dressy models. Skirts still remain rather short, and not more than two yards in width at the bottom.

A new idea for fall, which is proving very popular at the openings is the three-piece suit. It is really a tailored frock with coat to match, and is finding favor with well-dressed women because it gives them a smart suit for the street, while a simple frock for restaurant or house is shown when the coat is removed. Broadcloth and serge, combined with satin and velvet will be most used fabrics. Very vague as yet, but hinted at in many of the imported models is the tendency toward the Directorate style, with fronts slightly cut away and long square tails at the back. Judging by a large number of smart suits seen in the first showings the waistlines will be high this coming season, and this also holds true in all other lines of women's apparel.

As to materials for suits—velvet and chiffon velvet will be good later on, but for the beginning of the season lightweight chiffon, broadcloth and gabardine will be the favorites. Basketweave are made on very tailored lines. The predominating colors for fall are various shades of brown and taupe, but dark blue, plum, wine, and green will be favored also. Flat braid in rows is used on many of the fall suits. The large collars which were so popular last season are passing out as far as suits are concerned, though they will continue to be used on separate coats.

Obituary

Ellen Nora Patterson.

Ellen Nora Patterson was born near Homer, O., January 20, 1856.

She died at the home of her niece, Mrs. Harry Riffey, August 13, 1917, having reached the age of 61 years 6 months and 23 days.

She was a daughter of Jordan and Ellen Folly Patterson. She leaves a half sister, Mrs. Emma Edman; three nieces and two nephews, and a step-mother, Mrs. Jordan Patterson. Her father preceded her just six years ago, and her mother died at Ellen Nora's birth in 1856.

She was reared by her grandparents and afterwards lived with her aunts.

For a number of years she made her home with her aunt, Mariah Dixon. Since Mrs. Dixon's death her home has been with her niece, Mrs. Harry Riffey, where she received kindest consideration and care.

About 11 years ago she united with the M. E. church at Liberty and continued a member up to the time of her death. She very much enjoyed attending the services of the church.

She was much devoted to her near relatives and friends and relied much upon them.

She will be kindly remembered by the many who knew her life.

Funeral services were held at the Liberty church, Wednesday morning, August 15, conducted by her pastor, Rev. L. L. Landsetel. Burial in the Patterson cemetery by Paul S. Emerson.

Milady's Boudoir

Traveling Necessities.

Traveling is the bugaboo of the average woman. She is uncomfortable in the cars, her personal appearance suffers from the journey and in all she dislikes the preliminaries of a hotel stay.

Of course she should not think of traveling without a jar of cold cream. By rubbing a tiny dab of cream into her cheeks and powdering them over she can protect her complexion during the ride.

At night if she is obliged to continue her journey, before retiring it is well for Milady to wash her face in quantities of cold cream, instead of the hard gritty water found on the trains.

It is really the hair that makes women look untidy when traveling. Leaving against the back of the seats ruins loose all the short hairs and even the prettiest of women look unattractive when their hair is hanging about in dejected strands.

The careful woman carries with her several large nets and wears one every day over the top of the head at the back of the neck so that no loose hairs can escape.

The dust and chinders which get onto the hair when traveling are very injurious to the hair, and it is needless to caution Milady to shampoo her head as soon as she reaches her destination.

NEW HAIR REMOVER IN DEMAND, SAY DRUGGISTS (Phenacetine Removes Roots and All)

Since the advent of phenacetine as a hair remover, it has been known by druggists in this country to have been having a really extraordinary demand for this remarkable product. The fact that it actually removes the roots, so that one's very eyes as well as the surface hairs, is of course mainly responsible for its large and increasing sale. The new method is not so compared at all with other processes. It is entirely safe, non-irritating, non-injurious, and does not require the use of a stick of phenacetine, used in accordance with the simple instructions, anywhere or at any time. It is certain it is to satisfy and delight the user.

CANNING RULES

FROM U. S. Department of Agriculture

PROVIDE WINTER POTATOES BY HOME STORAGE.

Save late Irish potatoes by storing them in a room in the cellar, or in an out-of-door storage bank or pit.

When stored in cellars, the potatoes must be put into barrels, boxes, baskets, crates, bins, or on the floor, but must be protected from the light.

Select a well-drained location, make a shallow excavation about 6 inches deep, line it with straw, hay, leaves, or similar material, and place the potatoes in a conical pile on the lining. Make the bottom of the pile about the same size as, but not larger than, the bottom of the excavation.

Cover the potatoes with the same material as that used for lining the bottom of the pit and carry it up several inches above the apex of the pile of vegetables, having it extended through the dirt covering. This serves as a ventilating flue, and it should be covered with a piece of tin or a short board as a protection from rain.

The dirt covering should be 2 or 3 inches thick over the vegetables, and should be increased as severely cold weather approaches until it is a foot or more in thickness, or sufficient to protect from freezing.

In finishing the pit, the dirt should be firmed with the back of the shovel in order to make it as nearly waterproof as possible.

The shallow trench around the base of the pit should have an out-pur for carrying off the water. Supplement the dirt covering with manure, straw, corn fodder, or other protective material. Use several small pits instead of one large one, as vegetables keep better in small pits and the entire contents can be removed when the pit is opened.

For more detailed information on the storage of potatoes, write for Farmers' Bulletin 847 and 879, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

Granville

(Special to The Advocate)

Granville, O., Aug. 22.—It is with gratification that another big day at the A. F. F. W. and Red Cross headquarters, is recorded. Both morning and afternoon sessions were well attended and the stock of completed work was materially increased by a consignment from the Welsh Hills branch of the A. F. F. W. an itemized list of which was read by the president at the business meeting. Two large boxes are to be packed on Thursday, the one for hospital, the other for civilian needs. In her weekly report, Mrs. Frank Ray, chairman of the Red Cross unit and vice chairman of the A. F. F. W., said she had been called on to provide knitters, and the articles asked from this committee are: Socks, wristlets, mufflers and socks. She will furnish yarn and directions as soon as possible. Mrs. Biggs read a letter of thanks from the president at Paris, thanking this committee especially for the pajamas which, she said, they "never have enough." The secretary was instructed to send a note of thanks to the Licking County Suffrage Association in appreciation of the initiative of that organization in launching the "serial parties" and the generosity in making it possible for this committee of the A. F. F. W. to realize the sum of $94.00 from two of these parties. The rooms were being tastefully redecorated throughout, and in them an ever increasing number of Granville women will doubtless spend most of their spare time this winter in waiting for the boys at the front. The ways and means committee, with Mrs. August Odebrecht as chairman, has accepted the invitation of Mrs. C. B. Slack to give a serial party at her home in Cedar street, about September 5. Six ladies had already volunteered as hostesses at yesterday's meeting.

Eugene Flory who is in an officers' training camp of the Ohio National Guard, New Lexington, spent a brief furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Flory on the Newark road and left Monday to return to camp. Mr. Flory was one of the fortunate soldier boys who was given the 32nd degree in Masonry at the Columbus temple Saturday night and Sunday, a rite which greatly impressed him as it did all the other hundreds of candidates. He was a member of Center Star Lodge, F. & A. M. No. 11, at Granville. Messrs. C. D. Slack and John Geach, thirty-second degree Masons were among those present for Granville.

Mrs. J. D. Thompson

WOMEN IN MOTOR RACE NEXT SUNDAY AT COLUMBUS PARK

Masculine drivers of racing cars will not have the course all to themselves next Sunday at the Columbus Driving Park. Men will battle longest at the Autumn Derby at one hundred miles in their principal event but to women, Mrs. Elfrida Maie of Indianapolis and Miss Ora Holben of Springfield, Ill., have been matched for a special contest at either five or ten miles. Neither is a novice and each knows very well how to make speed in excess of a mile a minute.

Herey, Klein, Koetzia, Clark, Allen, Hoffman and Clements are counted on to cut into the Derby going. Herey won the Columbus hundred-mile in May, possibly because Clark dashed through a fence on his sixteenth lap when in the lead. All racing critics figure Klein will be a formidable opponent. Hoffman is just out of a western hospital, where he went last September because of racing injuries. Little is known of Clements, a newcomer. Koetzia was second in the last Columbus race and later at Detroit set a world's record for a dirt-track race of one hour.

Entrance gates to the Columbus Driving Park, which is easy of access from all parts of Ohio, will be open at eleven o'clock next Sunday morning. In addition to the special reserved parking spaces, there is lots of room for the general placing of motor cars. Actual racing will start at two o'clock. The women's event will come just ahead of the Derby. There will be no increase in admission prices.

GERMAN EFFORTS FAIL TO AROUSE MEXICAN PEOPLE

from Europe, have been selected and written with the obvious intention of presenting the condition and prospects of the central powers in the most favorable light and of painting the condition and future of the allies, especially the United States, in the darkest colors.

For example, El Democrita, August 3, printed an extra giving news of the revolt in Oklahoma against the conscription. Continued stress also has been laid on alleged widespread aggression from the United States of Mexican citizens who feared conscription in the army. The news dispatches of El Democrita come from an organization known as "The Spanish American News Service," of New York.

The campaign of El Democrita has not been particularly effective. It is the highest priced paper in Mexico, selling for ten cents a copy and the people who can afford to buy it are too well informed to be greatly influenced by its statements.

To overcome that difficulty, a new morning paper, El Mundo, which sells for 3 cents, recently has been started. This paper although headed ostensibly by Fidel Solis, is reported to be merely a branch of El Democrita.

The second plan of attack of the Germans has been aimed directly at the poorer classes and has colored its news with a more lurid brush. This line of offence has been headed by La Defensa, which appears at noon daily. This paper is distinguished by startling and insulting headlines which often have no connection whatever with the text beneath them. The paper however, does not confine itself to distortion of actual happenings. It has printed accounts of the sinking of entire American and British fleets, the bombardment of American ports by hostile warships and other fantastic stories.

La Defensa enjoys the peculiar advantage of being allowed to post copies of the paper on prominent buildings throughout the city. In this way the paper is read by many who otherwise would not buy it. Often these sheets are posted on government buildings. For example, an issue with the following headline, "Wilson, your hands are dripping with blood," was posted on buildings under both municipal and federal control.

In the morning field El Democrita is opposed by El Universal, which has conducted a strong pro-ally campaign and by El Pueblo and El Excelsior, which have been friendly rather than opposed to the United States. In addition to these papers, the German issue also a weekly sheet known as the Boletines Zeitung Von Mexico, printed in Spanish and the Informaciones des diplomabras or Wireless News issued when it is deemed expedient.

So far as is known H. Von Eckhardt, the German minister, keeps himself and his immediate subordinates aloof from this propaganda, the direction of which, it is understood, is in the hands of R. Lubbe or Von Lubbe, a wealthy retired German merchant.

German propaganda has not been confined to the capital. Strong efforts to influence public opinion have been made in Guadalajara and Puebla and other cities but so far as can be ascertained, they met with little success. Pro-German meetings were stopped by the authorities on at least two occasions in Guadalajara.

There has been a marked influx of Germans to Mexico City. The greater part of the newcomers came in mysterious circumstances and many of them speak Spanish fluently. It is supposed they come, for the most part from Cuba and Central and South America.

Proof of more overt acts against Mexico's neutrality by Germans have not been made public. If the agitation which produced the strike in the Tampico oil fields was of German origin it seems certain that it has produced through agents of other nationalities and Governor Ricau of the state of Tamaulipas has little difficulty in effecting a settlement.

WHY EXPERIMENT? TAKE TANLAC NOW

Profit by the Experiences of Thousands Whom the Master Medicine Has Given Health After All Else Failed.

Druggist Erman struck the keynote Monday when he remarked that it "seems as though dyspeptics and nervous people are really compelled to take Tanlac before they can get any relief." In a great measure this is true, as man after man and woman after woman who have taken the Master Medicine, without an exception, declare that Tanlac afforded them delightful relief after all else had failed. The following statement given by Anna Blade, 29 E. Harrison street, Newark, is an example.

"I took Tanlac for chronic indigestion and a full-down system. The relief was grand. Now my stomach digests my food perfectly. I am over that awful weakness and nervousness and my appetite hasn't been so sharp for years."

"I used to get up mornings feeling so worthless I had to go back to bed. Now I wake up rested and full of life and never get a bit tired during the day. My liver acts fine and my tongue is always clean. Really, Tanlac has made a new woman of me."

Tanlac, the new vegetable tonic, stomachic, combinator and invigorant, is being specially introduced at Erman's Arcade Drug Store, where the Tanlac man gives the particulars to steadily growing crowds daily. Tanlac may also be procured at the Evans Pharmacy, Warden hotel bldg., east side square, Newark; at the Hebron Drug Store, Hebron; at the P. H. Richardson, Pharmacist, Utica. Tanlac is a guaranteed preparation. (Adv.)

And the Man Moved On.
The prison visitor on his usual rounds noticed that a new man occupied a cell that had been empty for some time.

"My friend," he began, "may I ask what brought you here?"
"The same thing that brought you here," replied the convict. "A desire to make my nose into other people's business, only I generally used to go to the basement window."
